I wish for this, this and this.. I hope this works!

When the clock gives 60
seconds of hope

A cartoon illustration of a boy running away from a ghost-like creature in a city street. The boy, on the right, has black hair, a wide-eyed fearful expression, and is wearing a bright green shirt, blue pants, and a black backpack. He is running towards the right. The creature, on the left, is white with a large, jagged red mouth, red eyes, and red shoes. It has a menacing, toothy grin and is running towards the boy. The background features a red brick building with many windows and a black door. The ground is a mix of green grass and a brown path. The overall style is a simple, bold cartoon.
